

If you need Help with your Appeal

You are receiving this list because you may seek to obtain help with your appeal at the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (Commission) or at a hearing before an administrative law judge (ALJ) if your case is remanded. Below is a listing¹ of attorney and non-attorney agents who represent claimants, employers or both in appeals before the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission². You are not required to have a representative. Your appeal will be considered by the Commission regardless of whether you have an attorney or agent represent you.

Some of the representatives offer their services for free, others charge a fee. It is your responsibility to contact the attorney or agent to determine the scope and cost of the representation. The Commission does not endorse, and makes no representations, about the individuals or organizations in this list. The Commission does not guarantee that any representative will take your case.

Please note the deadlines for filing applications for oral argument, written argument and additional evidence at the Commission are set forth in the enclosed Important Notice.
