

ERIN CARLSON

Region 5 Teacher of the Year

SANDUSKY JUNIOR/SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

BIO

Erin Carlson is a 15-year veteran educator, finishing her sixth year teaching at Sandusky Junior/Senior High School. She currently teaches 11th grade English, 7th and 8th grade STEM, 7th grade enrichment classes, and high school online reading courses. Erin is also a co-adviser of the National Honor Society and the Key Club, the sophomore class adviser, SAT Official Practice Student Ambassador Adviser, 5th Grade Battle of the Books Coach, School Improvement Team member, and a teacher mentor. In addition, Erin has been recognized by the College Board as a Khan Academy Ambassador and has been invited to share her expertise on how she is using the platform to customize learning and maximize student success on both webinars and at national conferences. An active member of her community, Erin is also an Elk Township Library Board member, serves on the Sanilac County Community Foundation Steps for Success Advisory Board, and teaches high school cooking classes at the District Library. She was named the 2018 Sandusky Citizen of the Year and received a 2020 Michigan Lottery Excellence in Education Award for her efforts in the community. Erin also writes her own blog, "Working Mom Wonders."
