Region 8 Teacher of the Year

HEALTH/LEADERSHIP • TECUMSEH HIGH SCHOOL

BIO

Kristalyn Musselman is a 13-year veteran educator at Tecumseh Public Schools, where she currently teaches high school Health and Leadership. She began her teaching career in Special Education, working specifically with students with learning disabilities.

Kristalyn is passionate about health education, as well as equity and inclusion, and is always looking for ways to bring resources and opportunities to all students. Along with teaching, she is an adviser for the Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) club, the Gay Straight Alliance, the Peer-to-Peer Support program and Link Crew. Kristalyn also serves as the district's Sex Education Supervisor, co-chair of the Sex Education Advisory Board and is a Goal Leader on the district's Strategic Design Committee. She was co-chair of the district's five-year Sexual Health Initiative for Transformation (SHIFT), leading the project to increase acceptance of LGBTQ students. She has also planned and implemented a range of enrichment activities to promote values and development for students with Autism. Kristalyn is active member of the Tecumseh Coalition for Youth, a local substance-abuse prevention group, and serves on the Information and Education Committee for the Lenawee County Health Department.

REGION 8

Region 8 includes all schools in Hillsdale, Jackson, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Washtenaw counties.

Program expenses for the Regional Teachers of the Year, Michigan Teacher of the Year and Michigan Teacher Leadership Advisory Council are covered through a generous partnership with Meemic.
